Mayor of Pulaski wires that a band of 100 tramps is interfering with work of protecting the city. All hope of saving drainage district levee near Cairo abandoned and territory of 100 square miles will soon be flooded to depth of from five to fifty feet.
Levee which protects Cairo from Ohio river in very dangerous condition from Twentieth to Fortieth streets, with river rising at rate of .01 inch an hour.
Request made to secretary of war for use of United States boats on which to house 1,500 state troops now on duty at Cairo.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., APRIL 1.—Governor Dunne and Adjutant General Dickson are preparing to feed ten thousand refugees from the flood-stricken districts of southern Illinois. General Dickson estimates from his reports from all sections of the flood-stricken districts that the number of refugees will be at least that great, possibly greater. He is planning to go to southern Illinois to visit the various refugee camps which have been established to get data on the number in distress, and have supplies at hand to distribute to them. A detachment of troops will aid him in the work.
Late in the afternoon General Dickson talked over the telephone with Lieut. Ryman at Cairo. At that time Lieut. Ryman declared that all hope of saving the Cairo drainage district had been abandoned and all available help had been massed in an effort to prevent the destruction of the levee which protects the city proper.

Levee in Bad Condition.
"For twenty blocks the levee is in a precarious condition," declared Lieut. Ryman, "with the water steadily rising. There is six miles to be protected and everybody, soldiers and civilians alike, are working like Trojans to save the city."
The flooding of the Cairo drainage district, according to information received here, has inundated all railroad tracks leading to Cairo and all train service has been annulled. The message to Governor Dunne asking for a motor boat for use in rescuing residents of the Wabash bottoms was sent from Dahlgren by A. P. Jackson, with the request that the boat be sent to Epworth, White county. Many people are said to be marooned in the upper floors of their homes, but the state is powerless to give them immediate aid as it would take two or three days to get a boat to the scene.

Big Four Levee Breaks.
Cairo, Ill., April 1.—As Cairo was settling down to another night of anxiety over the flood waters, word came shortly before 6 o'clock that a gap had gone out in the Big Four levee in the drainage district to the north. Although the break had been momentarily expected for days, it served as a shock in Cairo, for it is felt that a similar situation may come at any time here.

The opening in the embankment was about fifteen feet long. Only one result awaits the district, and that is that it will fill to a depth varying from ten to twenty feet. The section has an area of about 7,000 acres and has many big manufacturing, mail order and lumber distributing plants. The whole territory was flooded last year with a loss of about $7,000,000. At that time Future City, with a negro population of 1,500, was inundated and many of the houses have been unoccupied since. Those who did live there had plenty of warning this time, and have abandoned their homes. The loss from the present flood will not exceed $1,000,000, it is said, and the greatest portion of this will fall on the industrial plants.

Will Put Road Out of Commission.
The break will put traffic over the Big Four road out of commission as their lines are situated on the levee top. It is predicted that the lowlands will be more than two days in filling if no further gaps are torn out. Last year with a section 300 feet long out, twenty-four hours passed before the rushing water ceased.

Cairo feels no alarm from this particular flood but what tomorrow may bring is another story. The reading of the gauge at 7 o'clock tonight was a trifle more than 53.8 and rising.

Soldiers were sent into the lowland sections of the city with policemen and citizens to search for any persons, particularly women, children and infirm, who still may be in their homes.

Crest of Flood Predicted.
The time that the crest of the flood will reach here has been predicted variously for tomorrow morning, tomorrow night and Thursday. Some place it was late as Saturday, but what the citizens, all of whom take a distinctive pride in their city, want is to be prepared when it does come.

A weak spot was found just above 18th street this afternoon by District Supt. Moore of the Mobile and Ohio railroad. This resulted in a troop train and passenger trains being held up for more than an hour, while the place was bolstered with sand bags. Dozens of carloads of sand and clay have been used to day, and it is believed the levee in front of the business district is about as secure as it can be made. The city is virtually under military rule tonight. Col. McCarthy, in charge, does not object to the friendly assistance of city and county authorities, but when decisions are to be made, he is the one who makes them.

Soldiers are tonight patrolling the streets and requiring all negro men who appear to have nothing to do, to give a satisfactory account of themselves.
Water Close to 54 Mark.
With the flood waters dangerously close to the 54 foot mark on the gauge, Colonel McCarthy tonight took steps to protect the lives of women and children who have not left the city. The colonel asked the assistance of local authorities in placing all of them on the river boats, where the supply of which is now considered sufficient to care for everyone as soon as the 54 foot mark is reached.

At 4 o'clock the reading was 53.7. Several train loads of women and children have left already and many others have been taken to Wickliffe, Kentucky on the Steamer Three States.

It is presumed that there is still a considerable number in the lowlands of the city and it is for these precautions are being taken.

Old Timers Unafraid.

Nearly all who are left are poor people unable to purchase tickets for safety. Others are old residents who have implicit faith in the levees to hold back the great flood of water having had long experience with similar conditions.
During the evening hundreds of bags of sand have been placed on top of the concrete wall which stands on the levee's edge, three feet above the street level. This wall extends south from 14th street directly in front of the city's business section North as far as 4th to the Ohio. The Central bridge over sand have been placed by the railroad companies along this space, but the water has come within six inches of flowing over them.

Complain Against Railroads.
The city in previous years has watched out for the downtown portions and the railroads for the other stretch. Complaint was made by Colonel McCarthy at a meeting with city and county authorities tonight that the railroads were not being done with sufficient alacrity and the railroads were urged to make more haste.

Promise was made that the work would be taken up with speed, failure of which, it was said, might result in the authorities commanding a train to take care of it.

The concrete wall was "bulked" during the day. This work consists of bracing with heavy wooden timbers and filling a space left between the concrete and timbers with clay.

Reports of breaks in small levees were current from time to time during the day.

ST. LOUIS WOMAN ENDS LIFE WITH POISON

WAS UNCONSCIOUS FOR TWO DAYS
AFTER TAKING DRUG

Suicide Came After Long Brooding
Spell Because Her Negro Husband Had Followed Her From St. Paul and Insisted On Seeing Her.

St. Louis, April 1.—Mrs. Julia McFarlane Gerhart, divorced wife of Charles B. Gerhart, died this afternoon as the result of taking poison with suicidal intent. Mrs. Gerhart, as she was known here, two days ago took the poison that resulted in her death and since then had been unconscious. She took the drug after a long spell of brooding because her negro husband had followed her from St. Paul to St. Louis and insisted on seeing her.

Mrs. Gerhart was divorced last November and fifteen days later, according to Mrs. Cox, with whom she boarded, she married a negro, L. W. Kellogg, at St. Paul. Kellogg formerly was butler in the Gerhart home. Mrs. Cox said that soon after Mrs. Gerhart went to her boarding house to live the negro, Kellogg, began to call on her. Mrs. Cox objected to these visits, but Mrs. Gerhart answered that the negro was her butler and came to see her on business.

A month ago when the negro called at the house Mrs. Cox refused to admit him. Thereupon he showed a marriage certificate said Mrs. Cox, and said:

"That woman is my wife. I have a right to see her."

Mrs. Cox took the negro to Mrs. Gerhart and asked if she were his wife. Mrs. Gerhart, according to Mrs. Cox, did not answer. Thereafter Mrs. Cox did not allow the negro in the house.

Mrs. Gerhart was the niece of the late Chief Justice George B. McFarlane of the Missouri supreme court.

In her divorce petition filed last September, she said that Gerhart was worth $300,000, but that since their separation the preceding April he had given her but $20 for her support. She was granted alimony of $2,100 a year.

Find No Marriage License.

St. Paul, April 1.—Inquiry at the district court here failed to disclose the issuance of a marriage license to L. W. Kellogg and Mrs. Julia McFarlane Gerhart. Kellogg's name is not listed in the city directory.

DEATHS WERE NOT CAUSED BY FLAMES

PERSONS IN PFANSCHMIDT HOME
DIED BY SHARPE INSTRUMENT

Three Physicians Who Performed Autopsy on Bodies of Emma Kaempfen and Blanche Pfanschmidt
Testify That Wounds
Were Caused Before Death.

QUINCY, ILL., APRIL 1.—The deaths of the four persons who perished in the flames of the Charles Pfanschmidt home were caused by some sharp instrument, and were not caused by burning in the flames that destroyed the house.

The wounds on the heads of Blanche Pfanschmidt and Emma Kaempfen were caused before death and not by some object which fell on the bodies after death. These are the facts produced at the trial of Ray Pfanschmidt today by three physicians who performed the autopsy on the bodies.

For the first time today the state endeavored to connect Ray Pfanschmidt with the quadruple murder. The tracks of the buggy and the imprints of horses' shoes found in the Pfanschmidt yard the morning of the fire tallied precisely with those of the buggy and of the horses of Ray Pfanschmidt, according to Chief of Police Lott. The officer further testified that the gasoline can found on the premises was identified by Ray Pfanschmidt as a "strange can." The morning of the fire Ray Pfanschmidt put this can in his buggy at the suggestion of the chief of police. Some time later the can was found out in the orchard. The bloodstained garments of Blanche Pfanschmidt and Emma Kaempfen were introduced in evidence today to prove that these young women were murdered.

JANESVILLE FIRE

CAUSES $300,000 LOSS.
Janesville, Wis., April 1.—Fire starting in the Reed Brothers Dry-goods store tonight caused a loss exceeding $300,000 and though several other business places are still in danger, it is not believed the fire will spread beyond the present limits. The burned buildings were on the Rock river bridge and when they collapsed fell into the river, damming the stream, and may cause a flood in parts of the city. The losses are: Reed Brothers, $125,000; Bond Brothers, $75,000; Rehberg, clothing, $125,000.

CONDITION CRITICAL.

West Palm Beach, Fla., April 1. Flager, the railroad and southern hotel magnate, who recently suffered a fall at his home near here was reported worse today. Late tonight Mr. Flager's condition was believed by his friends to be critical.

U.S. MAY BE FIRST TO RECOGNIZE REPUBLIC

Cabinet Considers Advisability of Recognizing Chinese Republic

DISCUSS PHILIPPINES

Joseph E. Davies of Wisconsin
May be Chosen Governor General of the Islands

CONSIDER TARIFF BILL

WASHINGTON, APRIL 1.—China and the Philippine question came prominently before the cabinet today. The president and his advisers discussed the advisability of recognizing the Chinese republic at an early date and there is every likelihood that the United States will be the first of the powers to act.

Administration of the Philippines was considered by the cabinet, and the name of Joseph E. Davies, of Wisconsin, secretary of the Democratic national committee was suggested as governor general of islands. Mr. Davies has had under consideration also an offer to be assistant secretary of war. The president is anxious to send a young man of progressive type to the Philippines to give him an accurate survey of conditions in the islands, and his long friendship for Mr. Davies is said to have prompted friends to mention him for the place. It was said tonight on good authority that if Mr. Davies did not become the governor general he might be a member of the Philippine commission. In the absence of the secretary of war, no decision was announced.

Urges Social Legislation.

The president today announced a long memorandum signed by Prof. Edward T. Devine of Columbia university and some of the most prominent social workers in the country urging that social legislation be enacted at the coming session.

Received Many Visitors.

The president received many distinguished visitors at the white house today. Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, was received in the green room and chatted for a few minutes with the president. The Siamese minister presented Mr. Westengurd adviser to the Siamese government.

Conferred With Underwood.

President Wilson and Representative Oscar W. Underwood were in conference for several hours at the white house tonight for the second time, over features of the proposed tariff revision. The conference was asked for by President Wilson who had been studying the new tariff bill for several days and familiarizing himself with many of the questions about which controversy has been raised in the preparation of the Democratic revision measure. Other conferences which are to follow with Mr. Underwood and Senator Simmons, chairman of the senate finance committee will settle the status of the sugar, wool and agricultural schedules so far as the party leaders can settle these and will decide whether one general bill or separate schedule bills shall be passed by the house. The opponents of free sugar chiefly representing the cane growing sections of the south have made strong reports to the president during the last week against removal of all duty from that product and the president has been weighing the arguments upon this and other tariff questions.

Discusses Tariff With Redfield.
Since his first conference with Mr. Underwood, President Wilson has gone over the tariff bill in immediate detail with Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce for whose tariff views he has high regard. It was understood that few detailed rates were under consideration at tonight's conference; but that the general questions as to the free admission of raw materials, and the extent to which the duty should be removed from agricultural products and articles largely consumed by the public were discussed fully.

Committee Will Meet Friday.
Efforts to bring the senate and house into accord before the details of the new tariff bill becomes public are to be made late this week. Senator Simmons will ask Democratic members of the senate finance committee to meet Friday, for a preliminary consideration of the tariff. At that time it is expected that a copy of the bill prepared by the house ways and means committee will be submitted to the Democratic senators and considered in detail.

Should the senate committee determine that certain features of the bill will not be acceptable in the senate efforts will be made to have the draft of the bill changed by the house committee or by the Democratic membership of the house when it meets in caucus next week so that the house and senate may be

TAFT RECEIVES GREAT OVATION IN NEW HAVEN

EX-PRESIDENT GETS HEARTY WELCOME FROM YALE STUDENTS

Practically Entire Student Body
3,000 Strong Meets Taft Party
At Station With Band—Ex-President Makes Brief Address To Enthusiastic Student.

NEW HAVEN, APRIL 1.—Undergraduate Yale welcomed former president William Howard Taft back to his Alma Mater to day in a manner no less hearty and enthusiastic than was the Godseep given Woodrow Wilson by the Princeton students when he left Princeton a month ago to take up the duties at Washington that Mr. Taft was about to lay down.

Practically the entire student body 3,000 strong, reinforced by a band, was present at the station when Mr. Taft and his party arrived this afternoon. An equally large crowd of citizens also was present. As the Taft party stepped from the train Captain Spaulding of last year's football team, stepped forward and presented Mrs. Taft with a great bouquet of violets. A moment later Yale's famous "frog chorus" cheer, with nine "Tafts" on the end, roared from 3,000 throats.

Deeply Moved By Reception.
Both Mr. and Mrs. Taft were deeply moved by the reception. Mr. Taft's famous smile was lacking for a moment and he wore a serious look as the demonstration grew, however, he smiled broadly and doffed his hat in acknowledgement.

Headed by the "Y" men of the athletic teams and a bull dog straining at its leash the procession proceeded to the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Taft with a delegation from the faculty, followed in an automobile. All along the line the ex-president and Mrs. Taft were a continuous ovation. Arriving on the campus, Mr. Taft was escorted to a balcony on Memorial Hall. As he started to speak he received another great ovation.

Visibly affected, Mr. Taft said:

"Men of Yale; you will believe me when I tell you that I am greatly touched by this student reception."

Then with a smile he said:

"What it was suggested to me, I deprecated it and thought it might be better to defer it until I took my departure, but as I hope that I will be indefinitely postponed and as I hope that Mrs. Taft and I are to become permanent residents of this city and members of the faculty of Yale College, I thought it was best to take what was coming to me at first."

"You may have heard more or less discussion when presidents of the United States are retired—voluntarily or otherwise—as to what should be done with them. When I took inventory, all I had was a somewhat tarnished reputation as a lawyer; a profession that I had abandoned thirty years ago, but at the suggestion of President Hadley, it was decided that what little law I have left might be put into practice here and I am again to become an active Yale man."

Mr. Taft then referred to the pleasure Yale's cheers and songs had given, and making kindly reference to President Hadley proposed three cheers for him.
A long Yale cheer was given with a will and another for Taft. Then came the impressive singing of "Bright College Years", Yale's song of songs, with the assemblage standing with bared heads. Mr. Taft joined in the singing and waved his hat in unison with the students with the concluding words "For God, for country and for Yale."

Mr. and Mrs. Taft later went to the hotel where they are to make their home temporarily.

GRAND ARMY MAN SUICIDES.

Portland, Ore., April 1.—Gavin Gaukln, assistant adjutant general, Grand Army of the Republic, committed suicide by shooting himself today.

He shot himself while standing in front of a cabinet filled with medals won in the service of his country.

brought into as complete accord as possible of the house bill.

Working Balance $80,050,448.
The treasury department began the month of April with $80,050,448 as a working balance of the federal government. The surplus receipts over disbursements for the current fiscal year to date, exclusive of Panama canal and public debt transactions has reached $12,620,140, as compared with a deficit of $9,931,951 on April 1st, last year.

The showing of March of this year however, was not as good as for March 1912, customs receipts falling off about $3,000,000. The receipts for the month were $56,702,084 and expenditures $51,478,553, a surplus of $5,241,531 for the month as compared with a surplus of $10,637,875 for March 1912.

Including Panama canal and public debt transactions, there is a deficit in the treasury for the current fiscal year to date of $18,652,199 against a deficit of $8,642,830 at this time last year.

The general fund today contained $148,496,280 as compared with $147,936,683 a month ago. The total cash in the treasury was $1,963,065,270. The gold coin and bullion in the trust funds for the redemption of outstanding gold certificates amounted to $1,068,649,169.

The 7,145 national banks with aggregate capital of $1,057,771,175 had $752,059,332 of bank notes in circulation.

DAYTON IS FACING GRAVE PROBLEM

CITY NEEDS MONEY AND FOOD FOR THE STRICKEN PEOPLE

Consider Plan to Ask Federal Government For Loan of $20,000,000 to $40,000,000 to Be Used in Reconstruction Work.

DAYTON, O., APRIL 1.—"Dayton is facing one of the gravest problems that any city of the world ever faced and we want the world to know we need money and food for our stricken people," John H. Patterson, president of the relief committee said tonight after he returned in company with H. E. Talbot, chief engineer from a tour of sections of Dayton that were swept by the flood last week.

Speaking of a tentative plan to ask the federal government for a loan of from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000 to be used in reconstruction work, Mr. Patterson said:

"At a meeting of bankers and officials of the building associations this evening it was decided to make an appeal for federal aid. The banks and building associations have $60,000,000 worth of assets which they will put up as collateral. It may be deemed advisable to ask the government to give us some financial assistance. We feel that the disaster is an emergency that would justify extraordinary action on the part of congress. Since Sunday more than $750,000 in cash has been received from banks in Cincinnati to replace damaged money in local banks which will remain closed until April 8th. Mr. Talbot tonight estimated that the property loss in Montgomery county would reach at least $150,000,000.

Although several carloads of provisions were received today, officials in charge of relief work stated that the food situation was a matter of grave concern. An increased number of refugees have applied for assistance.

"We must have rations for more than 100,000 people for an indefinite period," Mr. Patterson declared. Four bodies were taken from the debris by workmen today bringing the total number of bodies recovered up to 129 according to the coroner's estimate.

Eight More Bodies Recovered.

Columbus, O., April 1.—All that human effort could accomplish today to penetrate the part of the debris piled in the west side where it is believed many of the bodies of persons missing since the flood of March 25 finally will be recovered was done. As matters stood tonight, however, eight more bodies had passed through the morgues running the total of dead in that section up to 71. In addition to this number was the body of James M. Kearney, a merchant who was drowned several months ago and which cast up by the flood was found lodged in a tree when the waters had receded. That many other bodies will be recovered after the army of men employed in the work has attacked the great pile of debris made at several points by wrecked homes is generally conceded. Just how many will not be known for some days. The property damage in Columbus like the death toll is confined principally to the west side, the business and manufacturing districts having gone almost unscathed.

River Now Stationary.

Cincinnati, O., April 1.—The Ohio river at this point has been stationary since early this morning and indications are that it will remain stationary until some time tomorrow morning when it will begin to slowly recede. No additional damage has occurred here and the relief work has been going along in its regular channels.

SIXTEEN YEAR OLD LAD ACCUSED OF MURDERING AUNT

Youth is Alleged to Have Confessed to the Crime, Doesn't Know Why He Committed It, and Has No Regret For His Act.

Rochester, Minn., April 1.—Henry Schmidt, aged 16 years, is accused of killing his aunt, Mrs. George Hetzel, at the latter's farm nine miles from here today. He was arrested at the home of William Hetzel, a son of the murdered woman. Schmidt is in jail here and according to the authorities has confessed the crime. He says it is alleged that he killed his aunt and doesn't know why he did, but has no regret of his act.

Leo Hetzel, the 14-year-old son of Mrs. Hetzel, declares that prior to the shooting, Schmidt took him to the hay-loft in the barn, struck him over the head with the butt of a revolver, bound and gagged him. He says he heard the shot that killed his mother, and as soon as he could free himself gave the alarm. Schmidt not only confessed to the killing of Mrs. Hetzel, but declared that he had intended to also murder Mr. and Mrs. William Hetzel, the police say. The officials believe the boy is demented.

REPORT PROVES FALSE.

Brussels, Belgium, April 1.—The health of the ex-Empress Charlotte of Mexico, a sister of the late King Leopold of the Belgians, who was reported by several newspapers to be dying, continues fairly good. She took a walk in the park today.

TO NAME REMAINING COMMITTEES SOON

Speaker M'Kinley is Expected to Make Appointments This Week

REPUBLICAN LIST READY

Representative Tice Will Furnish Speaker With Republican Selections Today

GOV. TO MAKE APPOINTMENTS

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., APRIL 1.—Speaker McKinley, it is expected, will name most of the remaining house committees this week. With this end in view he asked Representative Homer J. Tice, who is preparing the Republican list of assignments, to be in readiness to turn them in to him tomorrow.

Representative Tice said tonight that the work practically is completed and that the Republican selections will be furnished Speaker McKinley tomorrow.

The chairmanship of the judiciary committee was to be the big plum on the Democratic side but because of the bitterness of the contest for the position between Representatives Lee O'Neill Browne and Charles Karch, it may be given to a Republican. There is a possibility, however, that the place may go to a Democrat whose name has not yet been mentioned in connection with it. The Progressives are to be ignored, it is said, in the distribution of chairmanships.

In the division tentatively agreed upon between the Republicans and Democrats, the former are to receive thirty-one and the latter thirty-eight chairmanships.

To Announce Appointments.
Governor Dunne probably will announce half a dozen appointments either tomorrow or the day following. It is understood that the election of former Mayor Fred Kern of Belleville as successor of Senator Sherman at the head of the board of administration will be announced first. At the same time the appointment of Arthur Charles, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, to be chairman of the rivers and lakes committee, probably will be made.

SIMPLE FUNERAL SERVICES WILL BE HELD OVER BODY TODAY

Services Over Body of J. P. Morgan Will Be Held in Rome Hotel Where Body Now Rests in State.

Rome, April 1.—A simple funeral service will be held over the body of J. P. Morgan tomorrow. The service will take place in the room at the hotel where the body now rests surrounded by great masses of flowers—tributes from friends and notable personages of various countries.

Only relatives, intimate friends of the family and the American ambassador Thomas J. O'Brien and Mrs. O'Brien, will attend the service, which will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Nelson, of the American church.

Make No Announcement.

New York, April 1.—Members of the late J. P. Morgan's household were not yet ready tonight to make any announcement of plans for his funeral. If a decision had been reached in Rome as to arrangements for bringing the financier's body to this country no advices regarding them had been received here, it was stated.

SCHWAB NOW CHAIRMAN.

New York, April 1.—Charles M. Schwab resigned today as president of the Bethlehem Steel company to become chairman of the board of directors of the same company. E. G. Grace was elected president in his stead.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

A social event of much prominence was the bridal dinner given Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at Colonial inn, in honor Mr. George Orear and Miss Emeline Brown, by Mr. and Mrs. George Conover of Buffalo, Ill., Mrs. Conover being the only sister of Miss Brown. Colonial inn never looked prettier and all the appointments were so charmingly made that the occasion will ever be recalled with most pleasant memories. Covers were laid for twenty-one and the decorations through out the inn and especially the table was beautiful in the extreme. The center piece of the large table consisted of yellow daisies and daffodils, with bows of yellow gauze ribbons entwining the flowers. Ferns leaves were artistically placed and extending to each plate was a chain of smilax. Suspended from the ceiling, directly above the table was the circle of ferns and smilax, dotted here and there with gold butterflies, and hanging on cords of gold were gold hearts, cupids and doves.

The decorations at each plate, including the favors added an artistic touch to the scene. At the bride's place, was a doll dressed as a bride and at each other plate was one dressed as a bride's maid. The napkins were marked in gold letters of "B" and "O" and a little gold cupid, holding a bunch of gauze ribbon tied at the end with bows was very clever. There were gold baskets tied with yellow ribbons for the almonds and smaller gold baskets for the bon-bons tiny gold sticks with candles, which were lighted; gold key with ribbons placed at the corner of each place card; white satin heart shaped boxes, with the letters "B" and "O" in gold upon them, also a gold ring and tiny dove. They were filled with favorite candy of the groom.

Gold hearts with white doves adorned the individual cakes of heart shape. The snapping mottoes contained musical instruments and a cap for the head.

An exquisite menu of ten courses, such as the inn is capable of serving, was finished by the cutting of the bride's cake. The cake was a work of art, made in heart shape and decorated with two smaller hearts upon which were written the words "George" and "Emeline". The favors won in the cutting of the cake were, the dime to Dr. Allen King; the ring to Mr. Louis Wiggins; the needle to Mr. Chester Wilcox; the button to Mr. Wilfred Ayers. The gold service was used for the dinner.

Yellow shades were used over the electric lights throughout the dining room, yellow candles also being used on the center table and the side boards which also contained the decoration of yellow daisies and daffodils. The hall was decorated in purple and white, easter lilies and ferns being used; the parlor was in pink, with pink carnations and the library in green. It was in the library that Harold Johnson's orchestra of seven pieces was stationed and rendered a program of suitable music.

There was a large attendance and the house was decorated in violets, the violet idea being carried out in the refreshments served. The "April Fool" candy afforded considerable amusements for the afternoon. For roll call the response was "Discoveries I have made in Household Science." The demonstration was practical and helpful and the meeting was one of profit.

Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Crum entertained a crowd of forty friends at an "April Fool" party Tuesday evening at their new home in Litterberry. A prize was awarded for the most foolish costume and the person who looked the most foolish, it being awarded to Mrs. O. Dunlap. April fool jokes and contests followed and prizes in the contests were awarded to Mrs. Earl Rexroat and John Daniels. One of the most amusing features of the entertainment was that each guest was required to order supper, and there were quite a number of surprises when it was served. Dishes filled with a substance which greatly resembled ice cream was served, but when tasted was found to be lard. At the close of a very delightful evening refreshments were served.

Miss Marie Finney entertained the members of the Delta Alpha class at a sewing at her home on Jordan street Tuesday afternoon. THIS MACHINE WORKS FOR BANK BOOKKEEPERS

Farrell & Co. Install Aid For Keeping Individual Accounts—New Machine Adds and Subtracts and Shows Overdrafts Automatically.

C. W. Sawyer, salesmanager for the Burroughs adding machine, was in the city yesterday demonstrating the adding and subtracting machine first installed by F. G. Farrell & Co. This machine which has been on the market now a little more than a year is a wonderful convenience in bank bookkeeping and its action is little short of human. It is designed especially for keeping individual or customers' ledgers and by its use the operator without any mental effort can add deposits to an account, subtract checks made against the account and have the balance all in a moment's time. If the checks made against an account are sufficient to overdraw the account the machine automatically locks and so calls the operator's attention to the fact that the account is being overdrawn. It of course can be released by touching a lever but the warning has been given to the bookkeeper. When the entry is made on overdraft checks the sheet shows them with an O. D. mark after them.

Another point which the use of the machine emphasizes is the neatness of the page showing the customers' accounts. The month and date are printed in red ink and the figures in purple or black, all letters and figures in typewriter type. The customer will never be in doubt because of the peculiar or hasty penmanship of some bookkeeper. The machine is operated by electricity. The special work of adding and subtracting for which it is designed does not interfere in any way with its ordinary use and in general appearance it resembles other adding machines. It was certainly a great mind that designed this machine and it will no doubt speedily have a large place in bank bookkeeping, relieving the tedium of adding and subtracting as it does, and insuring certain accuracy. A simple filing device which goes with the machine, holding the account sheets, is so arranged that those accounts in which there have been changes are separated with ease and speed from those which have not changed during the day.

THE PICKWICK PAPERS

A Vitagraph Special Feature.

JOHN BUNNY AS PICKWICK.

It's a gigantic triumph, gigantically conceived and gigantically executed, which is likely to stand forever as a monumental achievement, in its own way unsurpassable.

"It is not often that the work of reviewing film plays allows one to indulge in unmitigated praise, to luxuriate in superlatives, because, however excellent the creations of modern producers, and however steady their artistic development, it is seldom that any one of them so far overshoots the combined accomplishments of his fellows as to bring forth a single-masterpiece which in itself marks a distinct epoch in the history of the Cinematograph art.

This, however, is what has been done by the maker, or makers, of The Pickwick Papers, the latest and greatest achievement of the Vitagraph Co., which has never been surpassed, nor, one thinks, equalled.

Pickwick Papers. (Vitagraph. Two Reels)

PART ONE records the Adventures of the Honorable Event, and introduces Mr. Pickwick, Mr. Jingle, Mr. Winkle, Mr. Tupman, Dr. Slammer and all the familiar members of the Pickwick club. These gentlemen are involved in the Honorable Event, which is brought about by the rascally Jingle. Dr. Slammer and Mr. Winkle are prepared to fight a duel, but a most extraordinary and humorous situation arises by the timely discovery that Jingle, and not Winkle, is the man who insulted the doctor.

PART TWO embodies the Adventure of Westgate Seminary. Pickwick, at the suggestion of Job Trotter, Jingle's chum, goes on a wild goose chase to the seminary to prevent Jingle from eloping with one of the girls. Trotter and Jingle are thus given a chance to get away and escape the discovery of their rascality. Sam Weller, Pickwick's faithful servant, is much in evidence in the laughable adventure.

Every scene in both parts was made in the famous haunts of Pickwick, in merry old England. Every character seems a living reproduction of Cruikshank's famous cartoons.

THE ART OF CORRECT DRESS

The Fourth Article in a Series of Talks on Correctness in Dress.
A Subject of Especial Interest Just Now to

The Young Woman Graduate

Correctness in dress does not necessarily mean that a great expenditure must be involved in its production. Correctness is not a purchasable commodity, but is brought about by taking advantage of the best resources offered in the line of costuming. Graduation day marks an important epoch in a young woman's life, and the gown worn upon its celebration should be in keeping with the occasion. Harmon's Dry Goods Store, by virtue of the renown it has won as a dress goods center, the logical place to come for the graduation outfit; and the pattern department, where the famous Pictorial Review patterns are sold, shows the latest authorized modes for fashioning the garment. These two departments, through the agency of a talented and helpful sales force, are the most pronounced aids contained in Jacksonville for obtaining correctness in the graduation gown.

GEOLOGICAL FORMATION IS BLAMED FOR FLOODS.

Astronomer Says Great Lakes Are Sinking in Southwesterly Direction.

Paris, April 1.—In the opinion of Camille Flammarion, the French astronomer and director of the Juvisy Observatory, the floods in Ohio and Indiana have their origin as much in the geological formation of the country as in the meteorological conditions.

"Strange as it may seem," says Mr. Flammarion, "the cause of the disaster appears to be related to the evolution of the earth's crust in the same way as seismic phenomena in that part of the world. Geodetic investigations show that the whole of the western section of the Great Lakes of the country is slowly, but surely, sinking in a southwesterly direction.

"Mr. G. K. Gilbert, indeed, has calculated that if the subsidence continues five centuries hence Lake Michigan will end by running away into the Mississippi by way of the Desplaines river and through Illinois. This is a pessimistic prediction, which none of us will live to see realized.

"Nevertheless, as M. Montessus de Ballore says, American engineers connected with the waterways are watching closely the progressive modifications taking place there in the Mississippi and its tributaries; and the growing danger of these rivers overflowing their banks will be remedied.

"The frightful catastrophes may be foretold by a knowledge of the geological formation of those districts where any atmospheric perturbation of consequence is liable to provoke disaster."

BANKING SERVICE.

We talk about our banking service. We do so because we honestly believe we can render an unequalled and unexcelled banking service. Have you ever thought what real bank service is? It is not merely receiving your money and paying it out again on your check. No indeed.

Your banking service should first of all be absolutely safe and conservative. Look up this bank and see if it does not measure up in this respect.

Your banker should be your confidential business adviser and be able to give you the right advice at all times on business matters. He should keep his weather eye open at all times to your best interests. He should enjoy your confidence.

We try to keep the interests of our customers foremost in our thoughts. We know the banking and business experience of our officers enables them to furnish our customers an information and service bureau rarely found in a bank. We know that our organization is such that we can furnish our customers all banking accommodations at the lowest cost and we are doing it.

We honestly try to keep our depositors' funds working for them. Maybe we are dividing our legitimate profits with our customers, but we are building up our business on these lines. That is why we are opening accounts with the most conservative and careful men and women in the community.

Our bank is a complete one, built to fit this community, organized to give the people the best banking service possible. It is owned by no clique, caters to no class, seeks only the legitimate banking business of honest men and women. Its officers are the bank's entire attention except that given their farming interests.

We want your account even if it is small—of course we want large accounts—but we especially want the small accounts and want them to grow with us. We want the accounts of those who want to keep their funds at work.

Our Trust Department is a new thing in this community. Its advantages and usefulness are not generally understood. Trust companies are the highest developed modern means of handling many business affairs, especially estate matters. The trust department of our bank is entirely separate and distinct from the bank proper. It is at your service. Even if you are a depositor at another bank you are invited to consult us about any business it is capable of handling.

MARKET LETTERS.

Chicago Live Stock Market.
Chicago, March 31.—Oliver S. Green with Herreid & Co., U. S. yards Chicago, Ill., reports the estimated receipts for Monday, March 31:
Cattle—20,000.
Hogs—55,000.
Sheep—20,000.

With a normal run of cattle for Monday on account of the eastern traffic being tied up by the serious flood, the supply of cattle was fully up to the requirements of the trade. The market opened slow on a lower basis, but later became fairly active with nice handy weights, strong to 10c higher and good heavy cattle only steady. There was a liberal supply of good choice cattle among today's receipts, and with some 25 car loads, $8.75 to $8.95, and about half a dozen loads weight 1350 to 1600 at 9c. Two car loads extra choice, weight 1381, at $9.10. Choice butcher or stuff firm, others steady, canners steady, bulls strong, calves 25c lower. Nice light weights to medium weight stockers and feeders strong to 10c higher; heavy weights unchanged. Kansas City Market.

Kansas City Stock Yards, March 31.—Although there was a slump market on stock cattle and feeders last week, and closing prices were 10 to 20 lower, country purchases aggregated 11,000 head for the week, against 7,000 head same week last year. When prices on stock cattle and feeders were advancing, for a month or two prior to two weeks ago, there was a surplus of feed in the country, and a shortage of cattle, hence the scramble for cattle and the mounting prices. The feed question has become more settled, as shown by letters from a representative Illinois buyer to his commission man here. He bought a load of feeders here a week ago at $8.25; to day he is in the market for another load, but has reduced the limit to $8.00, saying the question of his feed was not as urgent now. On this basis prices may shade a little lower on country grades till grass starts good, at which time the feed proposition will again come to the front, and competition force the market up again. Receipts here are 9,000 to day, market steady to 10 lower on killing kinds, steady to strong on stockers and feeders. Stock steers largely from $6.85 to $8.00 to day, feeders $7.40 to $8.15. Stock cows in calf are strong, but barren stock cows are lower than a week ago. Top fed steers here to day $8.65, a few fancy quarantine cattle at that figure, heifers at $6.50 to $8.25, bulls $6.00 to $7.15, calves $7.00 to $9.75, quarantine steers except fancy cattle noted above, $6.50 to $7.75. Western sugar mill steers $7.50 to $8.40.

Walter Clyde Jones has been quiet since the breaking of the dead-lock. It is remarked there are more ways than one of enforcing the muffer ordinances.

A New York police inspector left an estate valued at $800,000. He must have been a diligent official, and have neglected few opportunities.

The Los Angeles municipal newspaper has been abandoned, the people voting it out of existence. The municipal treasury shows the result of the experiment.

Joseph G. Cannon was termed the watch-dog of the treasury for many years. The last Democratic congress was more extravagant by nearly one hundred million dollars than its predecessors. Old Joe will be missed.

Herbert Ward, the sculptor, last survivor of the H. M. Stanley expedition, has presented to Smithsonian institute his magnificent collection of African trophies and geographical documents of the stone age.

It will be necessary for authorities in the flooded districts to make strenuous efforts to prevent the ravages of diseases which now threaten to claim a larger toll than either floods or cyclone. It is the unfortunate sequence of the calamities which have preceded.

A Boston lady is said to have remarked that she wanted her daughter elected to membership in the Southern club of that city because it was the only club in Boston that could count six men to every girl in its membership. It is one of the most popular organizations in that city.

It is claimed by an investigating committee in Chicago that railroad real estate pays barely one-third of the amount assessed against real estate privately owned, and that millions in taxes are lost to that city every year because of insufficient tax laws relating to that class of property.

Plumbing is being taught girls in Los Angeles high school. They teach the young ladies how to repair a leaky faucet in the kitchen, stop escaping gas, read a water meter or clear a stopped up sink, and last, not least, if she has to hire a plumber, to see that he does his work right and not fix it so that he will be called back the next day to do his work over again.

Miss Marie Denizard, late candidate for president of France, says that widows, spinsters and divorcees over age should have the ballot because they have 4,000,000 votes to which they are entitled and pay $126,000,000 in taxes. Married women she says should be electors and eligible to all assemblies of the republic in place of their husbands who are unwilling to exercise the suffrage.

The Decatur Commissioners secured the concession asked from their local lighting company, a part of the McKinley system. The rate is now ten cents a kilowatt hour for residences, against the old rate of thirteen and a half cents, to go into effect May 1. This means a saving of a good many hundreds of dollars to every consumer, to every family, in Decatur. It means a benefit to the entire population. Our commissioners could, no doubt, see to it that some concessions are made to the consumers of electric current in Jacksonville. They, of course, can readily see that a franchise that benefits the greatest number would prove the most popular. Let us hope that the example set by the Decatur commissioners will not be lost sight of.

Members of the Pennsylvania house of representatives aver the fact that four dictographs have been found in that house, and that an equal number of these machines have been found in the senate. The devices were discovered in the small ventilators at the bottom of the desks. Who can have put them there is a problem, but it is declared that an investigation has failed to disclose that any had been purchased by the state. Burns detectives, of course, are suspected. The most disturbing aspect of the situation is the possibility that more of the uncanny contrivances are scattered through the committee rooms and other places where the legislators are in the habit of congregating. Members will now be very "guarded" in their speech, in more than one sense.

Boston university was one of the first colleges to realize the value of an employment bureau and in the girls' department alone. This year, about one hundred have been supplied with work. Miss Florence McArdle, in charge of the bureau, says that one of the best ways for girls to work their way through college is to get into a family where in return for performing certain household duties they get room, board, laundry and car fares. Never before have so many girls been working their way by this method as this year and the supply was no equal to the demand. Miss McArdle is working her way through college and in return for a specified number of hours at the bureau gets her tuition free. Before taking up this work she had tutored, done office work and many other things to support herself while getting education.

JEWISH FARMERS.

Recently compiled statistics show that there are now 7,500 Jewish families on farms in the United States, with a total of 37,000 Jews engaged in agriculture. Jews become eminent in the mercantile world because laws were passed hundreds of years ago prohibiting Jews from engaging in any other pursuit than money lending. This was later extended to permit buying and selling of goods. The laws were in force so long, that naturally the Jews became so proficient as merchants that it was their natural occupation, even after the laws were rescinded. But in Biblical times, the Jews were a nation of shepherds. Abraham was famed for the extent of his herds. So in modern days, the Jews again are becoming tillers of the soil and keepers of herds.

DRUGS.

In the penitentiary in the state of New York it is discovered that there is a regular system of conveying drugs like opium, morphine and cocaine into the penitentiary by means of postal cards. For a long time it has been known that cocaine and morphine fiends in the penitentiary have received regular supplies of these stimulants. How it was done no one knew. The convicts received embossed postal cards, containing such phrases as "We are all well at home and think always of you." Inside the embossing was the concealed drug. The wardens were astonished at the great increase in the number of postal cards received by the convicts, but they never thought of examining the missives until one of the attendants happened to drop a weight on one of the cards, and the mystery was revealed.

AMERICA'S LOAN.

The American financial syndicate is negotiating a loan with China differing from the old one in many respects, notably that the money lenders are acting independently of the other members of the recent six power group. The state department has had no hand in either suggesting or guaranteeing it. In no sense will the government at Washington be asked to stand sponsor for it, or to back any of the persons engaged in it. It is a transaction wholly between American financiers and Pekin, in which these are the only parties in interest. Moreover, the loan, which is much smaller than that which was involved in the proposed deal of the six powers, one of whom the United States. At the outset the New York syndicate will lend $10,000,000 for a short time, and if the terms and the relations be agreeable, the loan will be increased in length of time and in amount. Another important respect in which the present projected loan differs from the recent one is that there is an entire absence of pressure on the Chinese government.

A PUBLIC ENEMY.

The health commissioner of San Francisco catalogues under thirteen heads "enemies of children" as he sees them. Here they are:

1. Doctors who don't report cases of contagious disease.
2. Dirty milkmen.
3. Flies.

4. Tubercular cows.
5. Persons who conceal contagious diseases.
6. Hokey-pokey men.
7. Reckless automobile drivers.
8. Violators of quarantine.
9. Manufacturers of adulterated candies.
11. Child slavers.
12. Parsimonious taxpayers who value money more than child life.
13. Mothers who needlessly deprive their babies of mother's milk.
- Right as far as it goes. But there are a few others. Let us add:
14. Publishers, promulgators and singers of "smut" songs.
15. Managers of "suggestive" shows.
16. The dirty, ill-ventilated nickel show.
17. Vendors of "doped" medicines and soothing syrups.
18. The air-tight sleeping room.
19. Cigarettes and slot machines.

INDIAN LIKE ROCKEFELLER.

Has a Great Fortune From Oil Lands —His Royalties in Oklahoma Run as High as $15,000 a Month.

Muskogee, Okla., April 1.—The president of the United States, who gets $75,000 a year salary, and presidents of trusts, who get $100,000, are not in the class with Eastman Edwards, a Snake Indian of the Creek tribe. Edwards could pay the salary of Woodrow Wilson, then throw away the salaries of the state officials of Oklahoma and still have enough to live on. In actual income Edwards is the richest Indian in Oklahoma and probably in the world. All on account of oil.

Great Royalties.

The records of the Union Indian agency here show that in the last year this Indian's oil royalties have ranged from $11,000 to $12,000 a month, and for the past month it will exceed $15,000. This comes from two allotments, 320 acres, located in the great Cushing oil field. His share of the oil is only one-eighth, so the value of oil flowing from the wells on the land is enormous. It is expected that within the next thirty days ten more producing wells will be drilled on this land. In that case the Indians' income will be increased about 40 per cent over the present $15,000 a month.

Rich by Chance.

The Indian was made rich by chance. Being a Snake he would not come before the Dawes commission and select an allotment. So he was allotted arbitrarily along with hundreds of his kinsmen in the western part of the Creek nation, where the land was supposed to be of little value.

lue. And it was—until oil was discovered there. Edwards did not even know where the land was, and did not care, until oil men commenced to swoop down upon him for a lease. The government saw to it that when the lease was made the Indian was protected. That is how he is now the richest Indian in the country.

Floods Hit New York State and Surrounding Sections; New Details Told of Cyclone Horror.

Photos copyright, 1913, by American Press Association.

Continued rains in the eastern part of the country have added New York and sections of surrounding states to the list of flood swept commonwealths. Though the later torrents did not reach the magnitude of those that devastated Ohio and Indiana, vast damage was done over a wide area. Additional photographs and telegraphic reports continue to amplify tales of the horror that exists in Nebraska and Indiana. Above, at top, is a scene of the flood at Watervliet, N. Y. Underneath that is a picture of the storm raked section in Council Bluffs, Ia., just across the river from Omaha.

A LOAF OF BREAD

To Some People Means a Certain Number of Ounces of Dough Put in a Pan and Baked

To us it means this: A food product that should represent the highest possible standard of quality. Time was, when people only bought bread when there was no time for baking at home. But in the past few years there has been a growing sentiment in favor of "buying bread." We believe that the Ideal Bakery is largely responsible for this change in our city and community and attribute the growing demand for our product to the following facts:

We employ only thoroughly competent bakers.
We use only one of the highest grade spring wheat flours on the market: "Ethel Allen."
We wrap our loaves in moisture proof and germ proof waxed wrappers.

As a result of this you have:

COUNTING THE CASH IN OFFICE OF UNITED STATES TREASURER

Big Task Was Commenced Monday—former Governor Burke of North Dakota Enters upon Duties as Treasurer.

Washington, April 1.—John Burke, former governor of North Dakota, took the oath of office as treasurer of the United States today and entered upon the duties of his office, succeeding Carmi A. Thompson of Ohio, who succeeded United States Treasurer Lee McClung in December of 1912. As the law requires that the retiring treasurer's record of the transfer of funds be verified by an actual count of the notes, coin and securities in the treasury whenever there is a change of treasurers, the tremendous task of counting the board of approximately $1,500,000,000 contained in the vaults of the national treasury was begun today. This gigantic task which, it is estimated, would take one person about 300 years, will be completed by a small army of trusted employees under the direction and supervision of the committee which Secretary McAdoo appointed for that purpose, in from two to four months. The work is carried on during the working office hours only, beginning at 8:30 in the morning and closing at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Coin in Bags.

All of the paper money is counted piece by piece, but the gold and silver coin, usually stored in canvas bags, is counted by weight, unless some error is detected which makes it necessary to open every one of the bags and to count its contents. A test bag, the contents of which have been counted and found correct, is placed upon the scales and balanced against the other bags for verification. Each bag is checked and rechecked before it is returned to the vaults and great precautions are taken to prevent theft. Armed guards stand over the counters and workmen to protect them from interference.

The handling of the heavy coin bags in removing them from the stacks, passing them from hand to hand to the weighing counters and back again to the vaults to be re-stacked is strenuous work requiring considerable physical strength. The counting of the paper money and securities while not so strenuous, requires great skill and accuracy.

In the course of time there have been many counts of the funds in the United States treasury, but nearly in every case the actual contents of the vaults corresponded exactly with the amounts listed in the books and accounts of the treasury. In 1885, when the administration passed into the hands of the Democratic party and a Democratic treasurer succeeded the former Republican incumbent, a deficit of 2 cents was found at the count, but the missing coppers were found behind one of the desks after a few days. A few years ago it was found at one of these counts that one $1,000 bill was missing. The treasurer made good the amount and was later reimbursed by congress.

Substituted Lead for Silver.

Upon another occasion, a few years ago, one of the colored men employed at the count to carry coin bags from the vault to the weighing counter and back, stole about 600 silver dollars from the bags, substituting for them lead pieces of the same weight as the silver dollars. He was detected, however, arrested and punished. The detection of the man's dishonesty made it necessary to open every single coin bag in the vaults and to verify their contents by actual count.

The committee entrusted with the task of the count consists of the chief of the public moneys division, the chief of the loans and currency division and personal representatives of the retiring and incoming treasurer. The vaults were turned over to the committee today and carefully closed and sealed. The contents of the vaults will not be disturbed during the count excepting for the purpose of counting the funds. Only enough money to keep the wheels of the government revolving has been kept apart for use while the count is in progress. The vaults will be sealed at the close of every workday and will not be removed until the count is completed and the new treasurer ready to hand his receipts to the predecessor in office. When Carmi Thompson succeeded Lee McClung as treasurer he received more than $1,400,000,000. He must account for every cent of that amount, plus the millions he has since received, minus expenditures.

WARNING.

Drivers of vehicles found on the streets without a city license on and after April 1 will be arrested and prosecuted.

Chief of Police.

SAVED HIS SON

From Constitutional Decline.

So many cases like this are coming to our attention for the benefit of fathers and mothers of weak, sickly, ailing children in this vicinity we publish the following letter:—Mr. Richard Rush, of Columbus, Ind., says: "I believe I am indebted to the valuable medicinal properties of Vinol for the health of my little son Dale. He had a severe attack of whooping cough and measles, which affected his lungs and general constitution. We tried several other remedies without benefit, then commenced using Vinol and I take pleasure in acknowledging my confidence in its restorative and reconstructive virtues, for my little son is the picture of health now, all due to the use of Vinol."

This is because the child needed this strengthening and liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains. No oil, delicious taste. Children love it. We give back your money if Vinol does not do all we claim.

The congress will be in session four days. It has no legislative functions, but is held principally to provide a forum where subjects of interest to the church may be discussed. CONCORD.

Mrs. Thomas Titus went to Jacksonville Tuesday to assist her friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Self, in caring for Mr. Self, who is seriously ill at his home on East State street, they being long time friends.

Among Jacksonville's prominent citizens who were Concord passengers were Messrs. H. H. Bancroft and Roy Craik.

Bluford Violett, C. B. & Q. roadmaster of Beardstown, is quite actively identified these days with this bustling corporation's many aggressive improvements. Certainly this worthy gentleman is well qualified for the many problems which confront him in such a position.

W. P. Smith and daughter, Mrs. Moses, were here Wednesday, going to Jacksonville to attend the funeral of his little grandson, Thomas Tivnen, Jr., which was held from the residence that afternoon by Dr. McCarty, our estimable district superintendent. This family W. P. Smith's certainly have many trials as besides the death of this sweet little one, another grandchild, son of Mrs. Florence Smith, widow of their eldest son, who died suddenly several years ago, is not expected to live from pneumonia, following an attack of mumps.

Mrs. Margaret Rexroat returned from a sojourn of several months in California last Sunday.

Miss Hazara of Arenzville spent Thursday afternoon with her sister's family, Mrs. Howard Rentschler.

Mrs. Arthur Wood and little son of North Prairie came to Concord Saturday to assist in caring for her mother, Mrs. Harvey Haley, who is seriously ill at her home here.

James Deitrich was seen on our streets again today, being warmly greeted by his many friends, who are glad of his recovery.

Edward and George Beard returned to Concord after being about one year in California mostly and part of the time in Arkansas. They also stopped to visit in Jersey county, Illinois, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Yeck at Brighton Friday and their mother, who was with them, remained for a visit at Piasa. A most cordial welcome was accorded them by their hosts of friends.

Rev. J. G. Reed, pastor of the M. P. church, returned Saturday from Farris, Ill., where he went to attend the district convention and was accompanied home by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Thompson, who is a resident of Farris.

Mrs. Maria Conover, sister of our esteemed postmaster, C. Z. Roach, received word from her son, Charles, who resides at Dayton, O., that he and his family were safe, which was quite a relief to those interested.

William Hitt of Merritt was in Concord Monday.

Clark Caldwell is going overland on a business trip to Jacksonville Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Mary Ator and daughter entertained quite a company at dinner Sunday in their pleasant new home in Concord. The fortunate ones were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Abernathy, Mr. and Mrs. Ashford Ator and children and Dr. Anderson, and in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith also called.

Robert Diggins went to Jacksonville Monday morning on business.

Mrs. John Rink and daughter Margaret of Beardstown visited in Concord Sunday and Monday and visited her sisters, Mesdames Alice Titus and Addie Willard.

FASTEST LONG DISTANCE TRAIN.

Chicago, April 1.—In early preparation for the increased travel expected during the Panama exposition, the Northwestern and Union Pacific railroads today put into service a new overland limited train between this city and San Francisco. The claim is made that the new train will be the fastest for long distance ever attempted on a regular schedule. It will cover the distance between Chicago and San Francisco in 64 hours, which is five hours less than the best time now made between the two points.

MINERS OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Indianapolis, April 1.—Union miners practically throughout the United States suspended work today in observance of the fifteenth anniversary of the eight hour day in the mining industry. Gatherings with music and addresses and parades were held in many sections.

BURNED AND ITCHED BADLY

Burn Was Sore and Ulcerated, All Red and Inflamed. Suffered Terribly. Could Not Sleep for Two Weeks. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Arm Healed Nicely.

539 Lincoln Park Blvd., Chicago, Ill.—
"A year ago I received a very severe burn on my left arm. I caught cold in it and it was all sore and ulcerated.
The sore was as large as a silver dollar. It was all red and inflamed and had pus running out of it. I suffered terribly from burning pain; could not sleep for two weeks it burned and itched so badly. I applied —Salve. — Salve and a salve my druggist recommended as his own, but got no relief. I then commenced using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bathed the burned parts with Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment on a linen bandage. I got relief from the first and my arm healed nicely. I was soon able to be at work again. Had I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment at first I would have avoided lots of suffering."

To The Young Expectant Mother

Women of Experience Advise the Use of Mother's Friend.

There is a certain degree of trepidation in the minds of most women in regard to the subject of motherhood. The longing to process is often contrabanded by the inherent fear of a period of distress.

But there need be no such dread in view of the fact that you have a most reliable remedy in what is known as Mother's Friend. This is an external application that has a wonderful influence and control over the muscular tissues of the abdomen.
By its daily use the muscles, cords, tendons and ligaments all gently expand without the slightest strain; there is no pain, no nausea, no nervousness; what was dreaded as a severe physical ordeal becomes a calm, serene, joyful anticipation that brings impress such as our foremost teachers of gynecology are striving to drill into the minds of the present generation.

In almost every community there are women who have used Mother's Friend, and they are the ones that recovered quickly, conserved their health and strength to their pride over families destined by every rule of physiology and the history of successful men and women to repeat the story of greater achievement.

Mother's Friend is prepared after the formula of a noted family doctor by the Fruit Regulator Co., 138 Lamar Bldg.,
Atlanta, Ga.

Write them for their instructive book to expectant mothers. You will find Mother's Friend on sale by all drug stores at $1.00
a bottle.
There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Railroads Using Lignite.
Grand Forks, N. D. April 1.—
Twenty-one Chicago and Northwestern locomotives used on runs west into South Dakota have been fitted with spark arresters furnished by the American Locomotive Company, designed for engines burning lignite coal. The Burlington road is also experimenting with the use of lignite coal deposits of the western part and of the northwestern part of this state and the northwestern part of South Dakota will be available for railroad fuel if the experiments prove successful.

Railroad coal in the western sections of these states and in Western Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado ranges from $5 to $6 a ton, while lignite can be bought at this time for $1.75 a ton.
The experiments are of great value, not only to the railroads operating in the West, but also to the states of North and South Dakota.
The experiments of the two railroads is the result of the interest which has been aroused by the success met with by Dean Babcock and his assistants in the conduct of experiments at the Hebron station.
Dean Babcock has conducted numerous experiments and has invented several processes to render lignite coal of commercial use. A few years ago railroads and other large fuel consumers were skeptical of the value of the Western coal fields. When the coal was first used it proved rather a failure but the processes since employed to render it of greater utility have made it of practical value.

The fact that the railroads have shown sufficient faith in the coal to experiment with it for their engines is a great step toward its final entry into competition with the coal fields of Eastern states as a valuable commercial asset. If the fuel can be successfully used by the roads it will naturally lead to its use by manufacturing plants.

In discussing the report that the railroads were experimenting with the coal, Dean Babcock expressed himself as confident that the coal would ultimately be used for that purpose, but was not ready to say whether or not the appliance already employed would be sufficient to make it a success.

or Saturday.

J. Y. Smith reports finding a red carriage wheel headed out.
Our merchants were compelled to use four horses to haul goods from the railroad this week on account of the mud.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
Jones is reported quite ill this week.
William Kelly's condition remains about the same.

ford farm this week and will work for C. F. Story.

The town of Nortonville is on the boom this spring, as there are more business houses going up than for a number of years and several new dwellings are contemplated before the summer ends. It looks as though Nortonville was going to be prosperous under a Democratic administration.

The farmers are anxious to have the mud dry up so that they can get into the fields. Most of those who sowed oats before the rain think they will have to sow again, which will make spring work late.

CROSS ROADS.

James McCormick and Henry Reel were in Jacksonville on business Saturday.

Thomas Young and family, who departure last Friday for North Dakota, where they will make their home.

Mrs. J. Henry Scott has received 200 Buff Orpington eggs, which she will set in an incubator this coming week.

Mrs. William Paul has also received her Indian Runner duck from the Iowa poultry farm. They lay the pure white eggs and are certainly a fine duck. The profit is from the eggs.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

GAINS IN STOCKS WELL DISTRIBUTED

MARKET WAS STRONGEST AND BROADEST FOR SEVERAL WEEKS.

Traders Influenced by Resistance of the Market to Unfavorable News—European Buying Was Another Source of Strength.

(By Associated Press)
New York, April 1.—Gains of 1 to 3 points were well distributed among the standard stocks today. The market was the broadest and strongest of several weeks, both the speculative favorites and the standard investment stocks, sharing in the rise. New high prices for the rise which began more than a week ago were established.

Traders were influenced by the resistance of the market recently to unfavorable news. The death of J. P. Morgan yesterday and flood news of last week proved of little effect on the list and indications were that the market was oversold. Another source of strength was European buying.

Pennsylvania's February report showed a gain of nearly $1,500,000 in total operating revenue, but a rise in expenses of over $2,000,000 so that net earnings decreased $534,000. New York Central reported a net gain of $846,000.

GREAT SUMS ASKED FOR APPROPRIATIONS

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT SHOWS GREAT INCREASES.

Applications Have Been Made to General Assembly for Six Millions More Than Last Assembly Granted—The End is Not Yet—Figures Compiled by Secretary of Civil Service Commission.

Ward R. Robinson, secretary of the Illinois State Civil Service Bureau has compiled for the use of the appropriations committee of the Illinois General Assembly a comparative statement showing the amounts that were appropriated at the last session and the estimates made for this session. The figures given show that the total increase of appropriations asked for foots up to almost $8,000,000 and there are still several departments to hear from. The canal commission, the factory inspection department, the board of agriculture, the lieutenant governors office. Estimates for these departments are to be made by Mr. Ward later.

The total amount asked by all departments from the present assembly for the ordinary biennial appropriation is $31,069,972.82, as compared with $25,119,325.76 in 1911. The increase is $5,950,647.06.

The state board of administration request is $1,664,616.24 more than two years ago, largely because of the taking over of Dunning hospital in Chicago.

legislature to give him more than twice as much as the last general assembly appropriated for Attorney General Stead's department. The appropriation for this office two years ago was $290,613.25. Mr. Lucey wants $693,440.

Secretary of State Woods would have the assembly to give him $117,782.70 more than the last assembly appropriated to the department under the late Secretary Rose. The 1911 appropriation was $689,137.30. Secretary Woods wants $806,920.

State Treasurer Ryan is asking for $144,800.00 as compared with $108,000 appropriated in 1911, an increase of $36,800.

Governor Dunne, however, is asking for less than the last assembly gave to the executive department. The 1911 appropriation was $210,000. Governor Dunne is asking for $170,298.56, a decrease of $39,701.44.

The rivers and lakes commission was given $30,000 by the last assembly. It now asks for $204,000. Arthur W. Charles, chairman of the state Democratic committee is to be the head of the commission.

The University of Illinois, which is under a special tax law, wants $4,498,980, an increase of $979,680 over the last biennial appropriation.

The Illinois National Guard wants $1,628,714 an increase of $356,238.17.

The figures as prepared do not include special legislative appropriations for those made for special purposes, such as the new state hospital, the new penitentiary, etc. These must be added to the grand total.

The following tables gives the amount appropriated for each department or institution by the last general assembly with increase or decrease.

BOYS' CORN CLUB.

There is a close community of interest between the business men of Jacksonville and the farmers of the surrounding community. The business men realize that their prosperity depends to a great extent on the agriculture of Morgan county. It is as much to their interest as to the farmers that the farmer gets the greatest profit out of the soil. There is no direct profit to the business man from the boys' corn club yet the business men cheerfully contributed to the liberal prizes offered. It is hoped that the farmers and farmer boys of the county will respond as liberally to the spirit shown by the business men by entering the contest and sticking to the end. The prizes are large enough and there are enough of them to interest the boys.

Did you ever hear of Jerry Moore? Jerry succeeded in getting his name in every paper in America and securing a lasting fame through a boys' corn club. He lives at Winona, South Carolina and in 1910 raised 228 3-4 bushels of corn on one acre. Last winter he was the center of interest at the Chicago land show. He is one of the boys who has made good. The boys of Morgan county are offered the same chance through the big gold prizes offered by the Chamber of Commerce for the best acre of corn grown in this county by boys between 12 and 18 years of age. Some boy will win the first prize and will be well repaid for his effort. And then there are enough prizes to keep a lot of boys interested.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering, for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GAVE READING AT PUBLIC LIBRARY

Prof. Thomas H. Quigley of Routt College heard in interesting production of Well Known Irish Play "Maurice Harte."

"Maurice Harte" by T. C. Murray, was title of an able reading Tuesday evening at the public library, by Prof. Thomas H. Quigley, professor of English and Latin at Routt College. A good sized audience was present and many favorable comments were heard on Mr. Quigley's production from the standpoint both of its subject matter and manner of presentation. This is his second appearance recently as an interpreter of modern Irish drama, having read Yeats' "Cathleen Ni Houlihan" as one of the opening numbers of the regular series of literary entertainment at the public library. Those who heard Mr. Quigley at that time were so well pleased that he was prevailed upon to present another of the recent Irish plays.

"Maurice Harte" by T. C. Murray deals with a particular situation rather than a general one, portraying the struggle of the spiritual against the material. It is realistic in the extreme. Maurice Harte, a young man preparing for the priesthood, finds that he is not truly called of God, that he has lost his vocation. His parents who are in heavy debt on his account, see only the great loss to themselves if he gives up his preparation for the priesthood.

The first act closes with his consent to return to his studies at Mayrooth at the earnest solicitation of his parents. In the second act, we find Maurice's father, Michael, and his brother Owen, preparing for the latter's marriage, which is to be solemnized by Maurice himself after his ordination. Word is brought suddenly that Maurice is seriously ill; a few minutes later he is brought in, his mind gone on account of the terrible mental struggle he has undergone. This play with its tragic realism and his faithful characterization of Irish life is a good companion to Murray's other play "Birthright."

T. C. Murray, the author, is a Cork schoolmaster who joined the Irish dramatists a few years ago, offering his play "Birthright" for production at the Abbey theatre in Dublin. W. B. Yeats has called him the "Cork Realist." "Birthright" has been said to have made as deep an impression on the American public as any drama played by the Irish Players when they were in this country, and "Maurice Harte" produced in 1912, though not presenting so general a situation as "Birthright" maintains the standard set by its predecessor. Both give the author a high place, not only among Irish dramatists, but among all dramatists of the present day.

LEO SPERRY STRUCK BY STREET CAR.

While in the act of crossing North Main street Tuesday morning about 11:45 o'clock, Leo Sperry, aged 8 years, was struck by a street car and knocked unconscious for a time and painfully bruised, but his injuries are not considered serious. The car was in charge of Motorman W. L. Shawen, who sounded his siren when he saw the boy crossing the track, but the Sperry boy was a little late and was struck by the step of the car and knocked to the pavement. B. F. Henderson carried the boy into his residence and Dr. George Stacy was called. After the boy regained consciousness he was taken to the residence of his grandfather, W. C. Sperry on Duolin avenue.

I. W. C. GUILD.

The April meeting of the I. W. C. Guild will be held in the chapel Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Amanda Kidder, head of the department of expression, by request, will give "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." This delightful drama with its beautiful lessons, was put on the boards in London and it was expected to have a run of six weeks. That was four years ago and still the play is holding its place as one of the favorites. At the request of the officers of the guild an offering is asked for the benefit of the college. An invitation is extended to everyone to attend and hear Miss Kidder.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE AS A

TRAINER OF RELIGIOUS LEADERS

Some Interesting Comparisons Made by the Rev. Thomas W. Smith of New York City.

The latest number of the College Rambler which appeared Tuesday morning contains a contribution by the Rev. Thomas W. Smith of the class of '87, entitled, "Does Illinois College Furnish Religious Leaders?" He compares the number of its graduates which now become preachers or missionaries to the number following the same professions at other periods in the history of the college. He mentions the situation, too, in other institutions. The Rev. Mr. Smith is well known here, being a former resident and on-time faculty member of Illinois college. He is now pastor of a Presbyterian church in New York city. He says:

"The first ten classes which graduated from Illinois college, 1835 to 1844, numbered sixty-two in their ranks, of whom thirty-four went into the ministry. Of all decades in the history of the institution, this furnished the highest percentage, fifty-five per cent, for the preaching of the gospel. In 1845 to 1854 there were sixty-eight graduates with twenty-three entering the ministry, thirty-four per cent. In 1855 to 1864, out of one hundred and twelve graduates, seventeen or fifteen per cent had been called to the gospel. In 1865 to 1874, out of eighty graduates, only three, or four per cent, chose the ministry.

This was the lowest mark reached in all the seventy-eight years of our history. In 1875 to 1884 there were graduated one hundred and one men of whom seven, or seven per cent, became clergymen. Strangely enough, in the following decade, 1885 to 1894, there were the same number of graduates, one hundred and one, of which only six took up the preaching of the gospel. We find an encouraging increase in 1895 to 1904 when one hundred and five were graduated. The preachers numbered seventeen, which was eleven per cent. In the last eight classes eighty-five young men were graduated, of whom only five, thus far, have decided for the ministry, making six per cent. It is likely that of these youngest men of all, several will yet decide to be ministers, perhaps bringing up the figure to eight per cent. Out of a total of seven hundred and sixty-one men graduated in seventy-eight years, we thus find one hundred and twelve men entering the ministry of the gospel, which is fourteen and seven-tenths per cent."

Although this record is not as encouraging as it might be, Rev. Smith finds comfort in comparing it with the record of the larger eastern colleges, who give only two or three per cent of their graduates to the ministry. This may be explained, he thinks, by their distance from the large centers of commerce and the glitter of wealth and fashion. He points out, however, that many western denominational colleges are ahead of Illinois college, who have nothing of the religious history and missionary tradition which she has. "There was a time when no college in the land could surpass Illinois college in this noble idealism. Why should we fall so far behind in the present?"

In his conclusion, Rev. Smith offers a warning to those who may yet decide on the ministry. "Don't choose the ministry to please your dear mother or your fond pastor," he says. "Don't enlist in this crusade unless you are driven from within. There must be more than a pious predilection. There must be a secret and burning compulsion."

PREPARING TO FEED TEN THOUSAND REFUGEES IN SOUTHERN ILLINOIS

Among them late to day were the Diefeld, Drinkwater and Russell and Bird levees. No serious damage was reported from any of them, all of which are below here (either on the Missouri or Kentucky sides).

All Stores Were Closed. Much inconvenience was caused by the stores remaining closed. Even barber shops were not open. About seventy per cent of the business places on Washington street the principal business thoroughfare have moved their goods from downstairs floors to upper stories or to other places.

Two companies of soldiers who were unable to proceed further than Mounds on their way to Mound City, reached Cairo tonight and proceed to their destination by boat from here.

Cut Off All Trains. All trains into Cairo, with the exception of work trains, were cut off tonight at the request of D. F. Lansden of the railroad commission. The tracks run along the levee and the reason given for the request was that all possible space is needed for workmen. New speculation of the safety of this city sprung up tonight when it was learned here that United States Engineer Markham, at Memphis, Tenn., had said that the levees there would withstand 57 on the gauge at this place.

United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis wired from Chicago that he was starting to Springfield to take up with Governor Dunne the question of a request to the president for more government boats now stationed in the Mississippi river for this place. Authorities here are anxious that they be sent.

At ten o'clock tonight the gauge registered 53.9. Commander McMunn of the naval reserves had previously started a squad of his men to make an inspection of river boats with the idea of obtaining an accurate idea as to how many persons can be taken care of aboard the vessels. It is his belief that about 6,000 persons can be cared for. It is estimated that the number left in this city now does not exceed this very much.

Levee is Dynamited. Evansville, Ind., April 1.—The south levee at Shawneetown was blown out with dynamite this afternoon. The water is within four inches of the north levee. The property loss is placed at $100,000. No lives were lost.

The destruction of the levee was necessary to reduce the pressure of the water and save lives at Cairo and other river points.

In Twelve Feet of Water. Shawneetown, Illinois at 9 o'clock was twelve feet deep in water and the levee was wash in places. An expected further rise of two or three feet would see the entire levee under water. The levee of the lower side was out so that water entering was back water and comparatively little damage as done by the wash.

BREAK IN MEREDOSIA LEVEE QUICKLY REPAIRED

FIFTY MEN WORK ALL DAY AND NIGHT TO KEEP WATER OUT.

Small Amount of Water Let In, As Men Soon Had Hole Covered—Water Four Inches from Top South of Beardstown.

A break in the Illinois river levee two miles northeast of Meredosia which occurred Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock was quickly repaired by a force of fifty men under the direction of county commissioner William F. Roegge, before much water managed to get inside.

The river rose 3 inches at that point Tuesday and a force of fifty men was kept at work all day and night, re-inforcing the structure. Residents of the town of Meredosia express little fear regarding the situation, as it is thought that the crest of the flood has been reached and it is said that even if the levee did give way, the town would not be affected, and that the homes of the people within the levee are so high that they would not be damaged. A break would seriously cripple the farmers however, as the inundated land would be practically built for farming until so late in the season that little could be done. Last night the Indian Creek levee, five miles north of Meredosia was in danger, and fears were expressed as to whether it would be able to hold out all night.

Conditions South of Beardstown. Serious.

Last night the water stood just four inches from the top of the levee south of Beardstown and the levee was quite weak in places. A force of about forty men was kept busy re-inforcing the structure, under direction of Mayor H. C. Kell and Marshall L. W. Pilger. The water rose 5 1/4 inches from Monday night to Tuesday night and last night the stage was 21.2 feet. It is thought that the waters will not rise any more and that they will begin to recede in a short time. If this is the case the nonstrong wind from the south is experienced, it is thought that the levee will withstand the water. However, if the water raises or the wind blows from the south, with any great velocity, the men fear that the levee will give away, and in that case a serious flood will be experienced. It is said that the water will reach fourth and fifth streets in Beardstown and overflow Cone's addition, which has not happened since 1897.

Marshall Palzer in conversation by phone last night with city Engineer Henderson gave these facts. Mr. Henderson who is city engineer for Beardstown will go there to day.

In the Coal Creek levee district, just across the river, the water is reported to be four or five feet deep from the top of the levee and although quite a number of the people have moved from their houses, no damage is expected.

Water High At Pearl. Engineer H. L. Caldwell, who recently superintended the repairing of the levee near Pearl, was in communication with that place late Tuesday night, when he was informed that the river there had risen 7 inches in the last twenty four hours and that the state of at that point was 18.5 feet. Authorities there expressed the belief that the crest of the flood had been experienced and that the waters would soon be at a point at Winchester stands 18.7 feet.

ARTISTS RECITAL AT MUSIC HALL PLEASURES LARGE AUDIENCE

Mme. Sturkow Ryder, Pianist, and Miss Mary Hester Cleary, Dramatic Reader, Give Excellent Program.

Music hall at the Woman's college was the scene of a very pleasing artists recital Tuesday evening when Mme. Theodora Sturkow-Ryder, pianist, and Miss Mary Hester Cleary, dramatic reader, were heard in an excellent program. The recital was given under the auspices of the Guild of Trinity Episcopal church and quite a large number attended.

Mme. Ryder made her first appearance before an audience in this city Tuesday evening, and she won her hearers from the start. She displayed a masterful technique and her interpretation of the various numbers gave evidence of a thorough understanding of them. She was heartily applauded and gave as encores an Etude by Poldini and Badinage by Liadow. Miss Cleary, who has been heard on several occasions by Jacksonville audiences, needs no introduction to local people, and her work of Tuesday evening was fully up to the high standard that has characterized her previous recitals. She possesses that understanding of her selections that enable her to express the spirit of the character under consideration and the audience was especially pleased with her presentation of "The Happy Prince."

The program follows:
Suite D Minor d'Albert
